Why Vegan Jerky?

Jerky sales across the CPG industry have grown by 7% over the last year in the $2.8 billion meat snacks category. Households spent more per trip to their local stores on meat snacks than any other category of salty snacks¹. At the same time, 26% of Americans say they ate less meat than they did last year, instead turning to vegan and vegetarian alternatives in an effort to eat healthier². Offering new vegan alternatives to traditional meat products is now more important to health-conscious consumers than ever before.
